Not going to die from hunger She said she have to find food for her belly Cho... she's going to use what she have to get what she want hah...hah... use what she have to get what she want oh lord... said she's going to use what she have to get what she want hmmm use what she have thats what she's chanting hmmm

1st Verse

she said these breast is to buy her dresser she want human hair to put in setters she said if you drive a benz then everything gets better she said love alone cant cook sunday dinner she said this here nice shape is going to need something great the pretty cute smile will need toothpaste she said the tweezer is going to get her a visa nice nice car big house to live in Cho...

Chorus

she's going to use what she have to get what she want hah...hah... use what she have to get what she want oh lord... said she's going to use what she have to get what she want hmmm use what she have that s what she's chanting hmmm

2nd Verse

The first thing she thinks about is money and not a small amount of money and if you marry her she is going to want alimony you fall asleep in the house she's gone with all your money I'm not saying anything funny that girl there loves the money if you are not driving, don't bother to talk she's not skilauking you not flying on plane she don't want to know your name make sure your address is a close and not a lane her dream is to see money fall like rain
