

Guiding Star: Lyrics by Clinton Fearon

I'm blessed to be alive

Oh Yes

Oh Yes

I said love, love, love, love, love, love is my guiding star

Bittersweet memories of yesterday
Which ones will go which ones will stay

I hope it will be joy and not to sorrow
But what will be you see will be tomorrow

I say bittersweet memories I can't forget, no
Makes me who I am, I won't regret

Who I am is who I am no one can test
Who I am is who I am and I know that I am blessed

Oh

I say, love, love, love
Love is my guiding star
My guiding star
Guiding Star
My Guiding star

Many years of famine, few days of plenty
I didn't give up even though my belly was empty
Many years of drought, few days of water
But I didn't give up even when I was thirsty

I've heard so many cries, so many cries
From my people
And seen so many tears, so many tears
From my family

Seen so many blood, so many blood
From my people

I've seen so many blood, so many bloodshed

But a love, love, love
Love is my guiding star
My guiding star
Guiding Star
My guiding star
Love is my guiding star
My guiding star
Guiding star
My guiding star

Ohhh, Yeah

Hey

Bittersweet memories of yesterday
Which ones will go which ones will stay now

I hope it will be joy and not to sorrow
But what will be you see will be tomorrow

I say bittersweet memories I can't forget, no
Makes me who I am, I won't regret

Who I am is who I am no one can test, no
Who I am is who I am and I know that I am blessed

Cause
Love, love, love
Guiding Star

Ohhh, Yeah
