

LYRICS – CLINTON FEARON - SOCIAL UNREST

There's a social unrest hitting everywhere
Why why why must it be this way
How long will it last

Systemic injustice racial bias
Why why why must it be this way
How long will it last

One pound of sadness to one ounce of happiness
Why why why must it be this way
How long will it last

That's why there's a need for this
Funky reggae
Political reggae
Justice reggae
Togetherness oh yes oh yes nnn
The question is how long will it last

The whole world is trembling
The whole world is bleeding
The whole world is crying
The whole world is dying
Fast and slow fast and slow

There's a brutal onset happening everywhere
Why why why must it be this way
How long will it last

Fraudulent justice racist insults
Why why why must it be this way
How long will it last

One pound of sadness to one ounce of happiness
Why why why must it be this way
How long will it last

That's why there is a need for this
Funky reggae
Political reggae
Justice reggae
Togetherness oh yes oh yes nnn
The question is how long will it last
