

Teach the Youths – lyrics by Sister Nancy

Lyrics:

Dedicated to all the kids in the world
Might be a boy might be a girl
All the kids around the world
Sister Nancy's love is from my heart

I say treat the youths dem right
To make them live up in Jah sight
I say teach the youths dem the right, right right
Teach them not to fuss and fight

I say teach your youths dem right
Don't make them grow like no parasite
I say teach your children right
Tell dem nah go be no parasite

Cause I'm a humble woman
I praise Rastafari live up strong
Yes I'm a humble woman
Praise Rastafari live up strong
Yes I'm a humble woman
Don't heed to no temptation

For the youths I sing this song
Put your shoulder to the wheels
And go and get your education

Teach the youths say right
You teach dem everything is right
I say teach the youths the right
Tell dem nah go fuss and fight

Dedicated to the youths of the younger generation
Make them walk along in the right direction
I'm a humble woman
I Praise Rastafari, hold up strong
Yes, I'm a humble woman
For the youths of today I sing this song
Yes, I'm humble woman
Children get a firm education
Repeat, I'm a humble woman

Stay in school you made the right decision

Ehh

Respect and manners to all nation
Education is the key you must understand
The youths of today is the adult of tomorrow
You have to teach them not to steal an neither borrow
Hold your head up high and forget about your sorrow
From you have ambition well there is nothing you can't do
The sky is the limit, I know Jah will see you through

Teach the Youths dem right

Eh

I'm a humble woman
Praise Rastafari sing him song
Yes, I'm a humble woman
For the youths of today I have to do this song

I said, I'm a humble woman
Praise Rastafari, and hold up strong
I say, Teach the youths dem right
You teach dem not to fuss and fight
I say, Teach the youths dem right
Live up right in Jah Jah sight
I say, Teach the youths say right
Might could never be trite

I say, Teach the youths dem right
Teach the youths dem right
Teach the youths dem right
Teach dem right

I'm a humble woman
